

CALLING ALL HIGH SCHOOL ARTISTS!

CONGRESSMAN THOMAS GARRETT'S

2017 CONGRESSIONAL ART COMPETITION

The winner's art from Congressman Garrett's Art Competition will be displayed in the Cannon Tunnel of the U. S. Capitol for an entire year for thousands of visitors in Washington, DC to view. The winner will be invited to attend a reception with winners nationwide in Washington, DC this summer.

WHO: All high school students who live in Virginia's 5th Congressional District

ART:

- Two dimensional
- No larger than 26x26x4 when framed
- Less than 15 pounds when framed
- Original in concept, design, execution, and does not violate U.S. copyright laws.

MEDIA:

- Paintings
- Drawings
- Collages
- Prints
- Mixed Media
- Computer-generated art
- Photographs

RULES: Student release form and other guidelines can be found on Congressman Garrett's website at <https://tomgarrett.house.gov>.

QUESTIONS: Contact Laura Burbridge in Charlottesville at Laura.burbridge@mail.house.gov or (434) 973-9631.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS IS
FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2017 AT 4:30 P.M.

CALL FOR DELIVERY OPTIONS.